

FORMER EMPLOYEE WED TO E. H. RICHARDSON

Merchant, 65, and Former Miss Freda Jestes, 39, on Honeymoon.

Ernest H. Richardson, 65, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Boyd-Richardson Company, and Miss Freda Jestes, 39, formerly employed in the women's department of the store, were married yesterday morning at the Peters Memorial Presbyterian Church, 3100 Sidney street. Rev. Frederick A. Roblee performed the ceremony.

The couple left last night for New York and plan to sail on March 19 on the steamer Britannic for a cruise of the West Indies. They will return to St. Louis some time next month and will reside in the Chase Hotel, Richardson's present residence. Mrs. Richardson is the daughter of Mrs. Grace Jestes of 3452A Sidney street, with whom she had made her home.

Richardson was divorced by his first wife, Mrs. Nella M. Richardson, in January, 1931. The couple had been married more than 22 years.

A daughter, Miss Nella Jane Richardson, residing in Beverly Hills, Cal., with her mother, eloped last December 22 to Santa Barbara, Cal., with J. Richard Tennesen of Los Angeles. The elopement was announced February 10.
